About ROSA:-

Rural Organization for Social Advancement- "ROSA" Sansthan. It is a civil society, currently working in eastern part of Uttar Pradesh, India, The main target group of the organization is children, women, youth, labour and farmer of rural area of deprived society (most are the people of the every caste and religion who are most neglected in the society) who is scattered in different classes and castes. They are struggling on their level for livelihood and basic rights and entitlements but due to current socio and political circumstances, their whole development is not progressive as per their basic need and dignity as a human being.

Members of the "ROSA" team established a society named, "Rural Organization for Social Advancement" by their experiences for the protection of the families & interface for the better future of the poor community members in January, 2002. This organization got registered under the Society Registration Act 21 of 1860; having the registration No 410/2003-04 dated 21.7.2003 & registered under Income Tax Act - 12A, No. 118/2007-08/2981, dated 30-11-2007, registered under FCRA-1976 No. 136760169 dated 16.12.2009, PAN No.- AAAAR5396P and TAN No. ALDRO3919G dated 30.10.2014.

Origin of ROSA:-

"ROSA" was established by a group of gandhian ideology social activists, this group observed that people working a brick field (kiln) with women & children work very hard but they live in unsafe house & their children did not have the basic right of theirs. They work in unfavorable working conditions keeping their lives in danger still they always fear in mind for livelihood. Their families are far away from the better education & health and social security's services. Due to these reasons, unorganized labors of the society are victims of different types of exploitation.
