Background of the Society: -

Rural Organization for Social Advancement, known as "ROSA", is a social organization registered in Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh. This organization is providing services to the needy, poor and helpless individuals, families and communities of the society as per its objectives.

This organization came into existence in 2003 and is registered under the Society Registration Act 21, 1860.

"ROSA" was founded by a group of experienced social workers who had been working for a long time in various districts of Uttar Pradesh. It all started with a decision to share their work experiences, working strategy, dedication towards public interest and future dreams as a collective knowledge, understanding and collective efforts. With time, people with similar understanding and ideology joined in and the scope of the work grew.

With the expansion of the work of the organization, the management committee of the organization got registered under other laws to fulfil the responsibilities of compliance with various laws of the country. At present, the organization follows all the necessary registrations and legal provisions.

This organization got registered under the Society Registration Act 21 of 1860, registered under Income Tax Act 1961, registered under FCRA-1976 and registered with Niti Ayog.
